

Chapter 197

Song Xingchen's grandparents donated 200,000 yuan in sponsorship to our kindergarten, which is..."

Suzi interrupted Teacher Wei slightly angrily and said, "You mean, if we don't apologize, your kindergarten won't let my daughter go to kindergarten here?"

"I'm afraid..." Teacher Wei said embarrassingly, "It's not that simple...Even if Lilly is not studying in this kindergarten, Lilly still has to...apologize."

"Why!" Suzi suddenly asked loudly.

Teacher Wei: "Shen's only mother, it is indeed your daughter who beat Song Xingchen."

"I want to check the video!" Suzi was still very angry.

In the five years since she came to this county seat, she has always been uncontested with the world, doing a job in obscurity, seeming to be honest with her books, but one thing is that Suzi has never allowed others to bully her daughter!

Never!

"I checked the video if it was my daughter's fault, I would definitely apologize!" Suzi did not give in.

"Check it out! Check it out! Show her badly!" The fat man was the hardest.

Teacher Wei only needs to bite the bullet and check the video.

The result was not beyond what Suzi expected. It was Song Xingchen who laughed at Lilly as a child without a father. He also laughed at Lilly's mother who had been in jail before, and she laughed at Lilly's mother doing chores like a man on the construction site. Lilly, who is from his background, is not worthy of studying in this kindergarten. Because this kindergarten was sponsored by Grandpa Song Xingchen, it was an aristocratic kindergarten.

In aristocratic kindergartens, of course, you can't accept petty bastards.

This is Song Xingchen's only original remark.

When Song Xingchen was unprepared, Lilly punched Song Xingchen's nose with blood.

Just after the fight, Teacher Wei took Song Xingchen to wash away the nosebleeds.

I don't know if I check the video. When I check the video, the fat man saw that his son was bleeding. He got up from his chair and yelled at Suzi: "Your mothers will kneel for me right now. I apologize, or I won't let you out of this school!"

The fat man only scolded Suzi with arrogance and domineering.

And Fatty's wife Song Xingchen's mother only checked whether other places on Song Xingchen's body were injured. At this moment, no one could tell that Lilly had already sneaked behind Fatty, leaving Fatty sitting just now. The swivel chair was pulled aside.

The fat man sat down after roaring.

"Puff-Tong" The fat man sat firmly on the ground, and he let out a painful scream.

Suzi couldn't help but smiled: "Puff..."

After laughing, she looked at Fatty and Fatty's wife, and their son Song Xingchen, and said calmly: "I have watched the video. It was your son who insulted my daughter first. Children like you have no education at all, troublesome. You go home and educate well. It is wrong for my daughter to beat others, and I will go home to educate her. Goodbye!"

After speaking, I took my daughter and left.

Chapter 198

"You stop! You stinky girl!" The fat man sat on the ground, his tail bone hurt for a long time and couldn't stand up. He sat on the ground and yelled: "You woman, dare you to walk out of the kindergarten door, I make you unable to eat. Go around. I will let you mother and daughter two zombies on the street!"

The scolding was too harsh, and the scared Lilly put his little hand in his mother's hand and stiffened.

Suzi looked at her daughter distressedly: "The only thing is don't be afraid, mother has a way to deal with them."

Lilly nodded.

Suzi looked back at the wicked family of three, and calmly said: "I'm standing here now. I see what you can do to me? Now it is a society under the rule of law. If you dare to touch my finger, I will call the police immediately. Not only will I call the police, I will also sue this kindergarten. Isn't this kindergarten sponsored by your father-in-law?"

Investment?

By then, once your kindergarten is exposed, I am afraid that you will not even be able to receive a source of students, right? "

Fatty + Fatty's wife: "..."

Suzi turned around and left.

"You wait for me! I have a way to deal with you!" The fat man shouted angrily behind him.

Suzi held her daughter without turning her head, only snorted coldly: "Rogue!"

No way, here, in a small remote town, the economy is very backward, but the people are tough.

Suzi came here from another place. He gave birth to a child as soon as he settled down. He also dragged an older brother who was paralyzed with his lower limbs. Everyone wanted to bully Suzi.

As soon as Suzi took her daughter in the battery car to go home, her mobile phone rang, and when she picked it up, she was calling from the owner of the developer at the construction site. "Hello, President Ji, is there anything you call me? Do you want to work overtime? I will send my daughter home later and come back to work overtime soon." Suzi said hurriedly.

Ji Yunting is regarded as the biggest boss of the construction site where Suzi is located, but Suzi is not under the management of the developer, but under the control of the construction party. However, Suzi has always been dedicated to her work. No regrets and no regrets to work overtime.

After all, it is not easy to have such a job in a small city.

She wants to do her work as perfect as possible.

On that end, Ji Yunting's tone was very gentle: "Miss Shen, I have seen your construction drawings. The structure is very good and very reasonable. It is more reasonable than those old engineers who have been working for more than ten years. That's it. Tonight I was going to invite you to dinner, but our company has introduced a new big investor. No, I'm going to accompany that big investor in a meeting. I just came out now.

Because of the introduction of major investors, our development work will grow stronger in the future, and you will have more opportunities to perform.

Miss Shen, are you free tonight?

I want to invite you to dinner and talk in detail. "

Suzi: "..."

Ji Yunting has invited Suzi several times, each time he was rejected by Suzi, but this time, he unexpectedly invited Suzi to dinner again on the grounds that more funds were being introduced and the construction was expanding.

Suzi didn't know how to answer.

If she refuses blindly, she is afraid of losing her job, but Suzi really doesn't want to talk to Ji Yunting about things other than work.

It has been five years since I escaped from Yuncheng.

Suzi stayed in Yuncheng for ten years. From junior high school, high school to university, to jail, and then to the three months after he was released from prison, the whole ten years has become Suzi's nightmare.
